

PROFILE OF DR. KLAUS-PETER RÖHLER CEO OF ALLIANZ ITALY

Since January 2014 Klaus-Peter Röhler is heading Allianz Italy, one of the major insurance and financial entities in Italy, this country being the second largest insurance market after Germany for the Allianz SE Group.

In Italy, Allianz operates with 5,500 employees and a multi-channel network consisting of approximately 2,700 insurance agents, 1,900 financial advisors, 3.300 banks branches of bancassurance partners and the direct sale insurer Genialloyd. Under Röhler's leadership, Allianz Italy stood out in the financial and insurance market as a front runner in digital innovation, reaping important recognitions such as the MF Innovation Awards 2014-2017, and the Allianz brand strengthened its leadership in Italy as to reputation and customer centricity. The continuous development of new innovative digital assets, a significant multi-channel and multi-access strategy and a unique Technical Excellence in the market positioned Allianz Italy as a leading player in the Country's insurance arena, serving 7.2 million customers.

Klaus-Peter Röhler holds a PhD, a Degree in Law and a Diploma in Business Administration – he started his career in the banking industry, in 1996 he joined Allianz Group, where he covered various managerial positions, first in Germany and then at international level. Among his responsibilities, he headed the Group CEO Office and he was Senior Vice President of the Europe 1 Insurance Division, covering Switzerland, Austria, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Greece and Turkey.

In 2007 Röhler first moved to Italy and he has worked for five years as Chief Operating Officer at Allianz Italy, contributing to the successful integration of the Italian Group's operations. He then left Italy to head the Allianz Group's Swiss subsidiary as CEO and returned to Italy in 2014.

Röhler is a member of the newly created Renewal Agenda Committee, was member of the Allianz International Executive Committee and is member of the Supervisory Board of Allianz Worldwide Partners.
