RI TRANSPARENCY REPORT

2013/14

Allianz SE

About this report

The PRI Reporting Framework is a key step in the journey towards building a common language and industry standard for reporting responsible investment (RI) activities. This RI Transparency Report is one of the key outputs of this Framework. Its primary objective is to enable signatory transparency on RI activities and facilitate dialogue between investors and their clients, beneficiaries and other stakeholders. A copy of this report will be publicly disclosed for all reporting signatories on the PRI website, ensuring accountability of the PRI Initiative and its signatories.

This report is an export of the individual Signatory organisation's response to the PRI during the 2013-14 reporting cycle. It includes their responses to mandatory indicators, as well as responses to voluntary indicators the signatory has agreed to make public. The information is presented exactly as it was reported. Where an indicator offers a response option that is multiple-choice, all options that were available to the signatory to select are presented in this report. Presenting the information exactly as reported is a result of signatory feedback which suggested the PRI not summarise the information. As a result, the reports can be extensive. However, to help easily locate information, there is a Principles index which highlights where the information can be found and summarises the indicators that signatories complete and disclose.

Understanding the Principles Index

The Principles Index summarises the response status for the individual indicators and modules and shows how these relate to the six Principles for Responsible Investment. It can be used by stakeholders as an 'at-a-glance' summary of reported information and to identify particular themes or areas of interest.

Indicators can refer to one or more Principles. Some indicators are not specific to any Principle. These are highlighted in the 'General' column. When multiple Principles are covered across numerous indicators, in order to avoid repetition, only the main Principle covered is highlighted. This results in some Principles not being explicitly highlighted. For instance, Principle 1 and 2 cannot be implemented without implementing Principle 3, but there are cases when Principle 3 is not explicitly highlighted.

All indicators within a module are presented below. The status of indicators is shown with the following symbols:

Symbol	Status
✓	The signatory has completed all mandatory parts of this indicator
☑	The signatory has completed some parts of this indicator
🔒	This indicator was not relevant for this signatory
-	The signatory did not complete any part of this indicator
⚠	The signatory has flagged this indicator for internal review

Within the table, indicators marked in blue are mandatory to complete. Indicators marked in grey are voluntary to complete.

PRI disclaimer

This document is based on information reported by signatories and responses have not been independently audited by the PRI Secretariat, PRI working groups, or any other third party. While this information is believed to be reliable, no representations or warranties are made as to its accuracy and no responsibility or liability can be accepted for any error or omission.

OO 09 Voluntary Descriptive General

OO 09.1

Provide any additional information about your organisation, its mission, strategies, activities or investments which are important to contextualise your responsible investment activities.

At Allianz, investment management is performed by a global function, Allianz Investment Management (AIM). It manages all assets covering the liabilities of all Allianz Group insurance companies.

AIM is responsible Asset-Liability Management, Investment Strategy and Asset Manager Management. The latter includes the complete process of mandating internal/external Asset Managers for the management of Allianz assets (see SAM section).

Moreover, AIM has a Financial Control (planning & controlling, monitoring & reporting) and Operations (transactions settlement, liquidity management, IT & operations services) department.

In the context of this report it is important to understand that next to all non-Allianz Group Asset Managers also Allianz Asset Management comprising two separate investment management companies (Allianz Global Investors, AGI and PIMCO) are considered as EXTERNAL asset managers. The categorization of external asset managers for AGI and PIMCO is chosen as

- both report separately to PRI
- both conduct third party business

In the contrary, Allianz Capital Partners (ACP) and Allianz Real Estate (ARE) are subsumed in the category of INTERNAL asset managers as they are captive asset managers and do not perform any third party business.

As a leading global insurance company and one of the world's top five asset managers, we are aware of the potential impact of our investment decisions. We take seriously the responsibility that comes with the investment side of our business and are committed to systematically addressing controversial topics by integrating ESG considerations into our investment processes.

With proprietary assets of over €530 billion across a range of asset classes, sectors and countries, we are directly and indirectly connected with other businesses, sectors and economies, and are therefore an integral part of the globalized economy.

We strive to invest sustainably across all asset classes over time. The practical implementation of sustainability in proprietary asset management involves integrating ESG factors into our investment process, for example through research, corporate and country analysis, asset manager selection, monitoring and risk management. We firmly believe that considering ESG factors in investment management is not a short-term trend and over time will fundamentally change business, and consequently, investment performance.

We continue to integrate sustainability in our insurance investment portfolios. We apply a Group-wide exclusion policy for insurance and proprietary investments relating to banned weapons. The ability to apply this exclusion policy varies for some types of investments, e.g. when restricted companies are listed on major stock exchange indices, or where Allianz invests into investment funds managed by other organizations. In order to further develop our ESG ambitions for index-based investments, we are in dialogue with index providers on how to integrate ESG into mainstream index-related products.

ESG factors are considered in investment processes for alternative investments, such as renewable energy, infrastructure investments, and real estate. We are preparing the integration of ESG considerations into remaining asset classes in 2014 in line with our ESG Directive.

Throughout 2013, we have developed an ESG Directive for Investments, which aims to integrate ESG as a standard practice into the management of Allianz insurance investment portfolios. The Directive will be implemented in a step-by-step manner (2014-15) and intends to:

Include ESG questions in the asset manager selection process.

Assign asset managers to apply tailored ESG policies to the portfolios that they manage on behalf of Allianz.

Include ESG-related topics during annual asset manager reviews.

Due to the range of asset classes we own around the world, the Directive does not provide a one-size fits all solution or standardized approach to ESG that all asset managers have to implement. Instead, the responsibility for defining the best or most suitable ESG approach for a specific investment portfolio rests with the respective asset manager.

The modules and sections that you will be required to complete are listed below. They are based on the percentages provided in your AUM breakdown and your responses to the gateway indicators. Note, you are only required to report on asset classes that represent 10% or more of your AUM. You may report voluntarily on any applicable modules or sections by selecting them from the list. Specific guidelines on ESG Issues:

We are in the process of implementing a global ESG business screening process which was developed throughout 2013. For both underwriting and investments, we defined sensitive business areas with potentially significant business risk across regions and lines of business. These areas have been identified in dialogue with NGOs and an ongoing internal stakeholder engagement process (incl. Board Approval). Through our process we aim to achieve an improved risk management for our customers on ESG issues and systematically integrate ESG in our due diligence processes.

For the time being we have guidelines on the following issues:

Agriculture;Animal testing;Animal welfare;Betting and gambling;Clinical trials;Defense;Human Rights;Hydro-electric power;Infrastructure;Forced resettlement;Mining;Nuclear energy;Oil and Gas;Sex industry.

Provide a brief description of your organisation's governance, management structures and processes related to responsible investment.

The Group ESG Board, established in 2012, holds ultimate accountability for environment, social and governance (ESG) issues within Allianz. Three Board Members of Allianz SE (responsible for Global Insurance Lines, Investments and Asset Management) form the ESG Board which is responsible for integrating and strengthening ESG aspects within our insurance and investing activities which helps elevate ESG issues in our Group corporate governance. The ESG Board meets quarterly and reports to the Group Finance and Risk Committee for decision-making.

Besides the designated ESG Board, several committees with Board member leadership play an important role in our decision-making processes.

- Group Finance and Risk Committee: controls adherence to the principles of the Group-wide capital- and liquidity planning as well as the investment strategy and prepares the risk strategy. This includes establishing and controlling a Group-wide risk management and risk controlling system, also including sustainability risk. The committee is also the decision-making body for ESG-related topics, based on analysis and deliberations within the ESG Board.
- Group Investment Committee: oversees and reviews the investment activities of Allianz SE and Group companies in order to implement the Group Investment Strategy. The committee also decides on concrete investment frameworks for covered investment assets.

In addition, several Board members assume direct responsibility for specific sustainability topics. Functional departments also provide regular updates on sustainability issues directly to the Board.

NOTE: We do not feel that a fully comprehensive and complete representation of our governance approach is possible within the boundaries of OA 08.01.

Please find a description of our Governance Approach to responsible investment below:

At Allianz SE, all ESG related integration-activities are centrally coordinated by the so-called ESG Board. The ESG Board consists of three Allianz SE board members, responsible for the proprietary investments of Allianz, the asset management of Allianz as well as global corporate insurance lines.

The ESG Board sets the Allianz SE ESG agenda and decides on yearly work-plans for further integration of ESG into our insurance and investment activities.

With regard to responsible investment, the ESG Board...

- determines the overall ambition level for ESG integration into AZ proprietary investments
- determines the specific ESG requirements towards Asset Managers, which will be incorporated in the RfP process and the Asset Manager selection process for new mandates
- receives regular updates on status of implementation and decides further implementation steps.

Board Members:

The Allianz SE Board Member responsible for Investments obtains responsibility that respective ESG Board decisions which regard responsible investment are carried out and takes responsibility for process-oversight of the ESG integration into Allianz' insurance investment portfolios.

Chief-level Staff:

The CIO of Allianz Investment Management (AIM) obtains operative responsibility for carrying out ESG integration measures.

The CFO of Allianz Investment Management (AIM) obtains monitoring responsibility of the ESG integration into investments. He further coordinates:

1. the efforts of AIM Financial Control (AIM FC) in implementing concrete ESG requirements for the assets of Allianz insurance investment portfolios (proprietary assets).
2. the efforts of AIM Asset Manager Management (AIM AMM) to consider the ESG approach and resources in the selection and regular reviews of Asset Managers.

Portfolio Managers/ external managers:

Per the ESG Directive for Investments, all Asset Managers investing Allianz insurance investment portfolios are systematically assigned to develop and implement an ESG approach (process started in Q4 2013, to be completed throughout 2014-15).

Due to the range of asset classes we own around the world, the Directive does not provide a one-size fits all solution or standardized approach to ESG that all asset managers have to implement. Instead, the responsibility for defining the best or most suitable ESG approach for a specific investment portfolio rests with the respective asset manager.

Implementation (as defined in the explanatory notes) is carried out by our mandated Asset Managers.

We are already one of the world's leading renewables investors with a strong portfolio in wind energy and solar power amounting to €1.7 billion in 2013. Allianz Real Estate (ARE) has a comprehensive sustainability program in place, with a focus on environmental factors, to support our Group commitment to significantly reduce carbon emissions and meet the demand for sustainable real estate.

Although the influence of sustainable properties has yet to materialize in the value of real estate, we see that regulatory requirements and changing market demand, especially on the tenant side, will force real estate owners to improve the environmental impact of their portfolios in the future.

Allianz Real Estate sustainability program

The Allianz Real Estate sustainability program focuses on our core processes and creates a baseline and standards to assess our real estate's sustainability performance. Environmental factors, such as energy consumption and carbon emissions, are the main focus area, which not only help our sustainability performance but also help to reduce operating cost for tenants, many of whom are Allianz entities.

The main activities of the Allianz Real Estate sustainability program are:

1. Create Transparency

- Introduce common metrics for real estate sustainability.
- Assess and measure the sustainability status of ARE's real estate portfolio in a standardized way.
- Include sustainability in ARE's portfolio reporting.

2. Investment Management

- Include sustainability criteria in investment decision making.
- Check the sustainability performance of new real estate investments as part of the acquisition process.
- Include energy efficiency and other sustainability topics in the due diligence process
- Mandatory green building certification for new or refurbished assets (e.g. LEED, BREAM).

3. Asset management

- Improve communication between ARE and tenants to improve sustainability performance.
- Include property-specific sustainability strategies into business plans.
- Include energy efficiency into target setting with property and facility managers.
- Assess individual properties' sustainability status using the Green Rating method (see below).

4. Property management

Measure, collect and report building information according to sustainability metrics.

Implement specific improvement measures in property planning.

Proactively suggest measures to further optimize buildings'

sustainability performance.

Green Rating Alliance

ARE is a founding member of the Green Rating Alliance (GRA), a European association of real estate owners and investors, auditors, industry bodies, measurement organizations and technology providers. GRA has developed the Green Rating system, which provides a consistent approach to assessing, benchmarking and improving the environmental performance of existing buildings. The Green Rating covers six core areas: energy, carbon, water, transport, wellbeing and waste. ARE has assessed many of the existing commercial properties under management and all new investments using the Green Rating system.

Of all assets acquired since 2008, more than 20% have "green credentials" (e.g. Green Building Certification, Environmental Rating)

Brief description of investment

Allianz is operating on a carbon neutral basis since 2012. In addition to continually reducing carbon emissions from our own operations, we offset remaining emissions through direct investments in carbon reduction projects, which generate CO2 certificates. Investments to date include forest protection projects in Kenya and Indonesia and an energy efficiency program in India. Any remaining certificates after we offset our carbon footprint can be sold on the European carbon market to generate a financial return.

Our projects in detail:

Wildlife Works Carbon LLC (WWC): Through acquisition of a 10% share in this developer of REDD projects (Reducing Emissions from Deforestation and forest Degradation) we are supporting a forest protection project in Kenya. WWC projects meet strict sustainability criteria and are the first of their kind to generate CO2 certificates. By investing in WWC, we are highlighting REDD projects as an attractive investment option since they combine a high level of social and ecological responsibility with competitive returns for investors.

Rimba Raya: We invested in the Rimba Raya (translated as 'eternal forest') REDD project in Borneo, Indonesia in 2013. With this investment, Allianz helps prevent deforestation of 64,000 hectares of forest avoiding the release of 90 million tons of CO2. The project also creates a safe border for the nearby Tanjung Putting national park, which contains a world-renowned rehabilitation center for the Borneo Orang-Utan, which is threatened with extinction. (more detail can be found in the performance section)

C-Quest Capital LLC (CQC): We are financing an energy-efficiency program implemented by CQC in India. The program replaces incandescent light bulbs in private households with more energy-efficient and long-lasting compact fluorescent lamps (CFLs). The program allows private households to purchase CFLs at a greatly discounted price, enabling them to lower their energy bills and improving energy efficiency in a country that frequently experiences energy shortages.

Overview

SAM 01	Voluntary	Descriptive	PRI 1-6
SAM 01.1	Provide a brief description of how your organisation includes responsible investment considerations in your investment manager selection, appointment and monitoring processes.

As a leading global insurance company and one of the world's top five asset managers, we are aware of the potential impact of our investment decisions. We take seriously the responsibility that comes with the investment side of our business and are committed to systematically addressing controversial topics by integrating ESG considerations into our investment processes.

With proprietary assets of over €530 billion across a range of asset classes, sectors and countries, we are directly and indirectly connected with other businesses, sectors and economies, and are therefore an integral part of the globalized economy.

We strive to invest sustainably across all asset classes over time. The practical implementation of sustainability in proprietary asset management involves integrating ESG factors into our investment process, for example through research, corporate and country analysis, asset manager selection, monitoring and risk management. We firmly believe that considering ESG factors in investment management is not a short-term trend and over time will fundamentally change business, and consequently, investment performance.

We continue to integrate sustainability in our insurance investment portfolios. We apply a Group-wide exclusion policy for insurance and proprietary investments relating to banned weapons. The ability to apply this exclusion policy varies for some types of investments, e.g. when restricted companies are listed on major stock exchange indices, or where Allianz invests into investment funds managed by other organizations. In order to further develop our ESG ambitions for index-based investments, we are in dialogue with index providers on how to integrate ESG into mainstream index-related products.

ESG factors are considered in investment processes for alternative investments, such as renewable energy, infrastructure investments, and real estate. We are preparing the integration of ESG considerations into remaining asset classes in 2014 in line with our ESG Directive.

Throughout 2013, we have developed an ESG Directive for Investments, which aims to integrate ESG as a standard practice into the management of Allianz insurance investment portfolios. The Directive will be implemented in a step-by-step manner (2014-15) and intends to:

- Include ESG questions in the asset manager selection process.
- Assign asset managers to apply tailored ESG policies to the portfolios that they manage on behalf of Allianz.
- Include ESG-related topics during annual asset manager reviews.

Due to the range of asset classes we own around the world, the Directive does not provide a one-size fits all solution or standardized approach to ESG that all asset managers have to implement. Instead, the responsibility for defining the best or most suitable ESG approach for a specific investment portfolio rests with the respective asset manager.

Due to the range of asset classes we own around the world, we do not provide a one-size fits all solution or standardized approach to ESG that all asset managers have to implement. That is to say, aside from our global exclusion list, Allianz as a universal owner does not prescribe HOW ESG has to be implemented, but ensures THAT ESG approaches are integrated into our mandates. Therefore, the responsibility for defining the best or most suitable ESG approach for a specific investment portfolio rests with the respective asset manager.

SAM 07.2	Provide additional information relevant to your organisation's manager appointment process and considerations included in contractual agreements for listed assets.

SAM 08.2	Provide additional information relevant to your organisation's dialogue and monitoring of external managers. [Optional]
-----------------	---

For the reporting year 2013, the application of ESG exclusions was a standard item in the appointment of asset managers and regularly monitored by AIM (see SAM 01.1).

Throughout 2013, an updated approach to integrating ESG in our SAM-process was developed and piloted. This approach is outlined in the ESG Directive for Investments and is continued to be rolled out throughout 2014-15 (see SAM 01.1).

The ESG Directive for Investments intends to:

- Include ESG questions in the asset manager selection process.
- Assign asset managers to apply tailored ESG policies to the portfolios that they manage on behalf of Allianz.
- Include ESG-related topics during annual asset manager reviews.

Engagement

Overview

LEA 01	Voluntary	Descriptive	PRI 2
LEA 01.1	Provide a brief overview of your organisation's approach to engagement.

So far we have conducted case-by-case specific engagements. Throughout 2013, we have engaged with a major Asian energy company regarding environmental and H&S practices. Furthermore, we successfully implemented an environment, social and governance (ESG) dialogue format, which continually engages a group of German and international NGOs. The goal of this exchange is to establish an evidence-based dialogue built on trust and mutual understanding. This allows our NGO partners to directly address Allianz with their concerns and gives Allianz the opportunity to listen and understand their different perspectives. We can also tap into the expertise of NGO partners when formulating ESG positions and guidelines, incorporating their direct, on-the-ground experience of various topics. Our ESG dialogue is part of our new ESG framework for the Allianz Group. .

In this area, we plan to develop a formal ESG engagement framework to strengthen and standardize our approach to engagement with companies. Engagement is particularly important for asset classes or investments where we cannot avoid indirect exposure to issues that could be considered controversial. For example, due to our size we rely on broad indices with high liquidity as benchmarks for our large-scale investments. While we need such instruments for diversification and hedging purposes, we have no influence on their composition. Therefore we look to initiate and take part in dialogue with providers of such indices to determine how ESG issues can be integrated.
