Jump of small-ticket Term Life/Credit Life in India & Indonesia pushes no. of insured, while sales of bigger ticket products decrease => avg. premium per policy decreases

1) Net of currency exchange fluctuations (i.e. on Jun-2013 exchange rate basis), the Year-on-Year GWP change would have been +4%, reaching a GWP of EUR 49.9mn
2) GWP = Gross Written Premium
3) Insured assets, e.g. cattle, homes and motorcycles, are not included in the count of insured lives. Number of insured lives for Africa are partly based on proxy assumptions.
2014 half-year results: Assessment

- The ongoing rapid growth of the number of insured is a positive development. More people gain access to insurance this way.

- Still a number of challenges remain:
  - Customer growth is largely confined to India and Indonesia. Access to Allianz microinsurance in other markets is still limited.
  - Customer growth is driven by the most basic and affordable products only: simple term life and credit life insurance, so that customers remain severely underinsured.
  - Premium growth stagnates since the phase out of a major premium driver, an Indian micro-endowment, (due to regulatory changes) is barely compensated by increasing term life/credit life premiums and growth in smaller markets like Africa and Colombia.

- Therefore, more value-adding products per person are needed to mitigate the challenge of underinsurance and boost premium revenues at the same time.

- To achieve this, we are working on several initiatives such as new mobile insurance projects (Africa) and upselling riders on top of credit life (Indonesia).

Allianz is committed to increase the depth of coverage (insurance coverage per person) next to further increasing our large breadth of coverage (number of insured persons), in line with our microinsurance values (p.15) and operational quality standards (p.21).
Allianz Microinsurance “Life Stories” Awards

- 8 journalist teams went out to create intimate biographic portraits of Allianz microinsurance customers
- The best 3 portraits will receive the 1st ever Allianz Microinsurance Life Stories Award
- Here we present a preview of one such Life Story

Excerpts from the Life Story of Afrizal

by Wan Ulfah Nur Zuhra & Yodie Hardiyam

“The first few days in Jakarta, I just walked around the city. Accompanied by friends who had already migrated and were already working here.”

“I joined the street vendors, those who always run away when the police officers come. I was selling women’s underwear.”

“I never thought that it was the starting point from which I would continue to climb up into who I am now. I am who they call an entrepreneur. I am who is able to hire 15 workers.”

“I am planning to buy a house that I could use as a production place, so I do not need to rent again.”

“Yesterday, two journalists came to my house. ‘We want to write your life story,’ they said. It was the first time I was interviewed, and to be honest, something that I had never imagined before.”

What is Microinsurance: A Customer Story from Indonesia

- In 2007, Ms. Siti Muhibah takes out a 10-month microcredit of US$100 from a microfinance institution in Jakarta to grow her cookies shop.
- Her loan comes with an Allianz micro life insurance that costs US$1.20 for 10 months.
- Her daughter Zakiyah (photo) receives US$200 from Allianz.
- On top, Allianz pays off the rest of the loan.

Claim payout
US$200

- US$50 for funeral
- US$15 as savings
- US$135 as investment for her textile trading business

- As a result, Zakiyah increases her income from US$2 to US$6/day.

Where we do it

2014-Jun

- Markets: 11
- Insured lives: 34.1mn
- Insured assets: 0.5mn
- Premium: 47.4mn (Jan-Jun)

1) Number of markets, insured lives and assets are per 30-June. Premium figures are Jan-Jun figures. Double counting, e.g. if a person has two different Allianz life insurance products, is avoided where possible but cannot be entirely ruled out. Number of insured lives for Africa are partly based on proxy assumptions. The Allianz microinsurance definition may differ from local regulatory definitions.

1) Products launched since June 2013 that still have less than 1,000 insured lives or assets are not included. No. of insured lives for Africa are partly based on assumptions.

2) No. of insured lives per product may add up to more than the stated total number of lives per country because double counting is factored out, i.e. persons with two or more Allianz life insurance products (although some double counting cannot be entirely ruled out).

How we do it: We constantly assess the quality of our products

- Allianz assesses its microinsurance products on seven product quality criteria as outlined in the Allianz microinsurance assessment tool.
- The global micro portfolio as per Dec-2013 performs as below:

- Generally, Allianz products perform best on “simplicity” and “low transaction costs”
- The risk management capabilities of our global portfolio has increased in 2013, (1.1 vs 1.0 in 2012) and transactions costs have further improved as well (2.0 vs. 1.9)
- However, the overall average has only slightly increased due to the over-proportional growth of non-voluntary product like credit life that led to a decrease in the “voluntary” criterion from 0.4 to 0.3.
- Going forward, increasing the proportion of voluntary products is a priority.

1) All microinsurance products in 2013 (n=18 products) are included in the analysis, whether they cover lives or assets. The assessments per product are self assessments (as per Allianz product pool) and have been weighted by the number of insured per product. This means that good quality products with few insured have less weight than products with lower ranking but many insured.
How we do it: Distribution

Allianz’ local entities are the drivers & business owners of microinsurance. They work with over 500 experienced partners to reach out to customers.
