

ALLIANZ GROUP ENVIRONMENTAL GUIDELINE

ALLIANZ GROUP IS A GLOBAL FINANCIAL SERVICES PROVIDER WITH SERVICES PREDOMINANTLY IN THE INSURANCE AND ASSET MANAGEMENT BUSINESS.

Our retail and corporate clients enjoy an extensive product selection in all insurance business lines, designed to protect them against a wide range of risks. We are consistently ranked a top property and casualty insurer and are among the leading five companies in life and health insurance.

Allianz is committed to effectively manage its most significant environmental impacts, including the prevention of pollution, and strives to continually improve the environmental performance of its operations.

Specifically, we seek to

- source 100 percent renewable power for its group-wide operations by 2023 as a signatory to the RE100 initiative
- reduce the amount and carbon intensity of the energy we use for our operations e.g. through energy-efficient planning, construction and operation of buildings

- reduce the environmental impact of our business travel
- operate in a resource-efficient way, particularly regarding our use of paper and water, and
- minimize the environmental impact of the waste we produce through avoidance, reduction, re-use and recycling.

This statement supplements the existing commitments in Allianz's Code of Conduct and in Allianz's Climate Change Strategy.

Allianz applies respective environmental standards in its insurance and investment business as set out in the ESG Framework

Allianz considers environmental factors in its sourcing and procurement processes. In doing so it seeks to raise respective awareness of its environmental commitments amongst suppliers as well as contractors and to encourage them to act accordingly.

Allianz is committed to complying with all relevant environmental legislation.

Allianz provides its employees with appropriate education and training opportunities on the environmental effects of their activities

Allianz regularly monitors progress and reviews environmental performance against respective targets and objectives.

Allianz annually informs all employees and the public about its environmental aims and objectives as well as progress against environmental targets.

Implementation is monitored by the Group Environmental Officer, and is supported by the Board of Management of Allianz SE.
